INSTRUCTIONS

The following instructions and definitions apply to these requests and your responses thereto.

1. These requests are continuing in nature and require supplementary responses if you or your attorney obtain information which reveals that your responses were incorrect or incomplete when made or that your responses are no longer correct or complete.

2. These requests and your responses may be offered in evidence at the hearings of the above cause.

3. Your failure to respond to these requests as required by the Texas Rules of Civil Procedure within the time required may result in sanctions determined by the Administrative Law Judge.

4. Strict compliance with the requirements of Rules 193, 196, 197, and 198 of the Texas Rules of Civil Procedure shall be required. Service of your written responses to these requests, together with any objections, is due from you within 31 days of the date of service of these requests.

5. If you refuse to answer any interrogatory on the grounds that some or all of the requested information is protected or privileged, set forth, in detail, the privilege claimed, the facts upon which you rely to support the claim of privilege, and the scope of said privilege, and proceed to answer with all requested information for which protection or privilege is not claimed.

6. If you have ever had any of the documents requested below in your possession, custody, or control but do not now, you are requested to state the following with respect to each such document:

- a. The present location thereof, if known, or all reasons why you cannot or do not know the location thereof;
- b. The date each such document left your possession, custody, or control;
- c. The reasons why each such document is not now in your possession, custody, or control; and

- d. Names and addresses of all persons having knowledge about the matters inquired about in the immediately preceding paragraphs (a) through (c).

7. If any document requested herein has been destroyed, you are requested to describe in detail the circumstances of and reasons for such destruction and to produce all documents which relate to either the circumstances or the reasons for such destruction.

8. If any document requested herein is withheld under claim of privilege or is not produced for whatever reason, you are instructed (i) to state with specificity the claim of privilege or other reason used to withhold production, and (ii) to identify each such document by date, author, addressee, persons or entities copied, persons or entities who reviewed the document, and subject matter, without disclosing its contents, in a manner sufficient to allow it to be described to the Court for ruling on the privilege or other reason asserted. You are further requested to produce those portions of any such documents which are not subject to a claim of privilege or other reason for non-production by excising or otherwise protecting the portions for which privilege is asserted, if such a technique does not result in disclosing the contents of the portions for which some privilege is asserted. Also, for each document you claim is not discoverable, state the date of the document; the name, job title, and address of the person who prepared it; the name, address, and job title of the person to whom it was addressed or circulated, or who saw it; the name, job title, and address of the person now in possession of the document; a description of the subject matter of the document; and the present location and the custodian for the document.

9. Each of the requests contained herein is made in accordance with relevant provisions of Rules 193, 196, 197 and 198 of the Texas Rules of Civil Procedure. No request herein should be construed as calling for the following categories of information:

- a. Unless waiver of an existing privilege has occurred or is intended, the work-product of the attorneys for parties who have appeared in this case; and
- b. Documents containing information generated by a non-testifying consulting expert employed by you in anticipation of litigation unless the consulting expert's opinion or impressions have been reviewed by a testifying expert.

As to that information which you contend falls into the categories enumerated above, or is protected from disclosure by any other privilege, counsel should follow the relevant provisions of Rule 193 concerning presentation of objections to any information requested by these requests.

10. Pursuant to Rule 196.4 of the Texas Rules of Civil Procedure, if any information responsive to any request for production is in electronic or magnetic format or otherwise exists on computer hard-drive or any other form of electronic data storage, you are instructed to provide such information by downloading true and correct copies of such information on a computer disc ("CD"). If you cannot, through reasonable efforts, provide such information in CD format, you are instructed to download and print true and correct copies of such information from the electronic storage format into hard copies for subsequent production. All such electronic, magnetic or computer information is specifically included within the scope and definition of the term "document" as hereinafter defined.

DEFINITIONS

1. "Applicant," unless otherwise modified to reflect a different context, refers to BFI Waste Systems of North America, Inc., BFI Waste Systems of North America, LLC, BFI Sunset Farms Landfill, Sunset Farms Landfill and all of their present or former officers, directors, board members, employees, agents, engineers, consultants, experts, representatives, predecessors and all other persons acting in concert with such entities, on their behalf or under their control whether directly or indirectly.

2. "Application," unless otherwise modified to reflect a different context, refers to the application for a permit amendment for TCEQ MSW Permit No. 1447-A originally submitted August 5, 2005 which is the subject of these proceedings, together with any and all documents, attachments, supplements or other written or electronically disseminated information filed or submitted in support thereto.

3. "BFI" refers to Applicant, as herein defined, and all of its present or former officers, directors, board members, employees, agents, engineers, consultants, experts, representatives, predecessors and all other persons acting in concert with BFI, on its behalf or under its control whether directly or indirectly.

4. "Communication(s)" refers to any oral or written communication of which the Applicant has knowledge, information or belief.

5. "Date" means the exact date, month, and year, if ascertainable, or, if not, the best available approximation.

6. "Document" refers to, without limitation, any book, pamphlet, magazine, circular, bulletin, manual, periodical, written communication, correspondence, resolution, telegram, letter, message, report, inventory, account, bill of sale, purchase order, bill of lading, shipping order, work order, change order, invoice, check, memorandum, division order, contract, subcontract, agreement, draft, minute, diary, statement, study, analysis, evaluation, worksheet (including any accountant's worksheet), working paper, court paper, paper, transcript, note, pen or pencil notation, schedule, chart, list, log, graph, table, index, instruction, blueprint, drawing, questionnaire, survey, record, photograph, audio or video recording, information generated or stored on a computer disc or hard drive, personal electronic device, computer printout, data compilation, data processing card, microfilm or microfiche or any other writing or recording, however produced or reproduced.

7. "Executive Director" or "ED" refers to the chief administrative officer of the Texas Commission on Environmental Quality ("TCEQ") and all of his present and former employees, deputy directors, managers, agents, consultants, experts, representatives, predecessors and all other persons acting in concert with him, on his behalf or under his control whether directly or indirectly.

8. "Expert" refers to persons who have been consulted, retained or specifically employed by you in any way connected with or related to these permit proceedings, except that a person who will not be called to testify as an expert and whose opinions or impressions have not been and will not be reviewed, in whole or in part, by a testifying expert shall not be considered an expert for purposes of these interrogatories.

9. "Permit," unless otherwise modified to reflect a different context, refers to the authorization granted by the TCEQ to operate the Sunset Farms Landfill, together with any amendments or modifications thereto, for TCEQ MSW Permit No. 1447 as it currently exists and inclusive of the amendments requested in the Application.

10. "Person" refers to any individual, proprietorship, firm, corporation, association, partnership, organization, governmental subdivision or other entity.

11. "Regulatory authority" or "authority" refers to the specific guidance document(s), administrative rule(s), statutory reference(s), TCEQ or Environmental Protection Agency document(s), published study or reference, treatise, textbook or recognized authority consulted, reviewed or relied upon in support of any element of the Application for a permit amendment sought in these proceedings.

12. "Site" or Facility" refers to the BFI Sunset Farms Landfill facility that is referenced in the Application which is the subject of these proceedings.

13. "Statement" includes any written or graphic statement, any stenographic, mechanical, electrical or other recording or transcription thereof which is a substantially verbatim recital of an oral statement by the person making it and contemporaneously recorded.

14. "TCEQ" refers to the Texas Commission on Environmental Quality and all of its present and former commissioners, executive directors, deputy directors, managers, employees, agents, consultants, experts, representatives, predecessors, and all other persons acting in concert with it, on its behalf or under its control whether directly or indirectly.

15. "You," "Your," "Yourself" or "OPIC" refers to the Office of Public Interest Counsel, present and former employees, agents, consultants, experts, representatives and all persons acting in concert with it, on its behalf or under its control whether directly or indirectly.

16. When used in reference to an individual or person, "identify" means to state his full name, business affiliation and title, current telephone number, and his present and/or last known business address and personal residence. A request for the "identity" of an individual shall constitute a request for the same information.

17. When used in reference to an entity other than a natural person, "identify" means to state its full name, its assumed name if any, telephone number, the address of its principal place of business, its mode of organization (e.g., corporation, partnership, governmental subdivision, etc.), the names of its principals, if any, and the nature of its business. A request for the "identity" of an entity other than a natural person shall constitute a request for the same information.

18. When used in reference to a document (including any written communication), the terms "identify" and "describe" mean to state the nature and title of the document, its author, its recipient, the date of its preparation, a summary of its contents, its present location and custodian, and a statement of its disposition if it is no longer in the possession, custody or control of the respondent. A request for a "description" or "identification" of a document shall constitute a request for the same information. A true, legible and complete copy of each such document (with a designation of the interrogatory to which it relates) may be affixed to the answers supplied hereto in lieu of such description or identification.

19. When used with reference to an oral communication, the terms "identify" or "describe" mean to state its nature (e.g., telephone call, interview, conversation in person, etc.) the identity (as such term is defined above) of each person participating therein or witnessing any part thereof, its date, its place, and a summary of its substance. Additionally, if there is any written memorandum or other writing evidencing, reflecting or relating to such oral communication, identify or describe such document in accordance with Paragraph E. above. A request for a "description" or "identification" of an oral communication shall constitute a request for the same information.

20. When used in the context of a contention interrogatory, the term “state the basis” means to recite all facts, opinions, arguments and legal theories upon which you rely in support of such contention.

21. Any use of one gender herein is intended to include all genders.

22. Any use of the singular form of grammar herein is intended to include the corresponding plural form as well, and vice versa, where such alteration would contribute either to the accuracy or to the thoroughness of an answer.
